WEDDINGS

Getting married by the Halifax waterfront will be a memorable maritime experience for you and your guests. The Small Craft Gallery is an extraordinary venue for a wedding and offers an unforgettable backdrop for your special day.

MEETINGS

Choose the Maritime Museum of the Atlantic for your next business meeting. Situated on Halifax's beautiful waterfront, the museum is a fantastic place to show the city's rich maritime history. Whether it's an annual general meeting, presentation, or team building retreat, the Maritime Museum has unique options for your needs.

RECEPTIONS

See our extensive collection displayed at your private reception, and show off what Nova Scotia is all about to your guests. The Maritime Museum of the Atlantic will turn your milestone into a special event. From retirements and anniversaries to reunions, award ceremonies and holiday parties, the museum is your perfect escape from the ordinary.

The Maritime Museum of the Atlantic

CAN BE PART OF YOUR HISTORIC EVENT!

The Small Craft Gallery has impressive harbour views and houses wooden nautical vessels that span the century. The museum hosts many special events – from weddings and receptions to art performances and lectures. This spectacular gallery accommodates up to 110 people seated or 250 people for a standing event. Contact us to view our museum rental facilities which will add a sense of grandness and history to your occasion.
